Information about delivery times within Germany is provided in the respective product description. Delivery times for shipments to countries listed in the table have to be added to those given in the product description.

Shipping costs and delivery times for other countries on request.

The delivery period starts once the payment order is given to the bank to make the transfer (for advance payments); for other payment methods, the period begins the day after your order has been accepted by us. If the deadline for delivery falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a local public holiday, it will be postponed to the next business day.
